

Create inclusive, high-performing teams without a sociology degree.

Introducing The Re-Seasoning Coalition's Equity & Empowerment in Foodservice e-learning program, a unique solution to closing the talent gap and recruiting, retaining, and promoting employees from underrepresented groups.

Developed using first-party Canadian research, our six-month curriculum is designed for corporate foodservice leaders and restaurant managers who want to optimize their impact and give their brand a competitive advantage with a people-first approach.

WHAT YOU GET

Expert guidance

Learn the foundations of equity, inclusion, and anti-racism to create spaces where everyone can reach their highest potential.

Empowered learning

Solidify your knowledge through flexible, remote learning and small, instructor-led sessions with industry peers.

Tailored solutions

Apply course concepts directly to your organization with strategic recommendations backed by industry-leading research.

MODULES

3

MONTHS

6

ACCESS

24/7

"This course is a game changer for foodservice. Its focus on the real issues operators and employees are facing is missing in our industry. 10/10."
- Philman George, Corporate Chef,
KRAFTHEINZ CANADA

This project has been funded by

Women and Gender Equality Canada

Femmes et Égalité
des genres Canada

Canada

JOIN THE WAITLIST